Any questions may be brought to the Service Desk on the show floor prior to the event or TLC's business office. TLC Shipping & Receiving will not assume liability for lost, late, or damaged freight, either inbound or outbound.

In the event the User wishes to ship freight containing any material(s) related to the event described herein to or from (inbound or outbound) The Lakeland Center, the User will be subject to shipping charges at the prevailing published rate.

If the shipment arrives without a bill of lading, The Lakeland Center will determine the estimated weight.

Shipping charges will apply to all incoming freight delivered to and/or handled by the Lakeland Center including but not limited to logging in of freight or deliverance to designated area.

Once received, only those items listed as "Pre-paid" will be delivered to the designated area.

Items received with a "balance due" status will not be released until User has reconciled the account or received direct billing status from The Lakeland Center client service representative.

All outbound freight must be pre-paid. In addition, the User must arrange for the pick-up with a carrier, pack and label all boxes, and provide a bill of lading to The Lakeland Center.

User shall be responsible for any extraordinary charges related hereto not otherwise covered by the schedule of charges on a time and materials basis. User agrees to defend, indemnify and hold the Lakeland Center Harmless from all costs and expenses the Lakeland center may accrue by offering this service.

User shall be responsible for charges not paid by additional participants/exhibitors/vendors of the event.

For a schedule of charges and policies, please contact your client service representative.
